Center Montessori School

Edible School Gardens: A Delicious Way to Motivate Children in the Classroom

Please visit our drop box for useful pdfs and websites for gardening information and curriculum.
drop box link : http://centermontessori.org/ams website: http://www.centermontessori.org/ Menu: Our School, Garden Programs
We welcome your comments and questions:
jcobb@centermontessori.org - Jayne Cobb mfulk@centermontessori.org - Mara Fulk

Major Curriculum Websites	About
http://www.nourishlife.org/teach/curriculum/	Sign up to download and extensive lesson guide for food related issues on sustainability.
http://www.lifelab.org/	This is the site for the Growing Classroom Curriculum The book can be ordered on this site or through Amazon at a considerable discount used. It is easy to use and has many lessons to support garden activities. This site is a major resource.
http://www.slowfood.com/education/pagine/eng/pagina.lasso?-id_pg=25	Link: To the Origins of Taste - a free download in 12 languages A sensorial education kit.
http://www.ecoliteracy.org/	Comprehensive guide to garden and nature programs. Some downloadable curriculum. Site for steps to creating a classroom gardening
http://www.slowfoodusa.org/index.php/programs/children_and_food_detail/resources1/	A list of ESG resources and links from Slow Food USA
http://edibleschoolyard.org/	Ongoing updates on Edible Schoolyards across the country. Filled with curriculum ideas. Links to UC Berkeley lecture series on Food. Mathematics Made Delicious materials and much more. Site for Making Mathematics Delicious.
http://www.growinggardeners.net/wp-content/uploads/2011/03/Primary-Lessons-for-Edible-Garden.pdf	George Watts - Primary Curriculum I http://growinggardeners.files.wordpress.com/2010/09/lcng_lower_el.pdf	George Watts - Lower Elementary
http://growinggardeners.files.wordpress.com/2010/09/lcng_upper_el.pdf	George Watts - Upper Elementary
http://www.kidsgardening.org/	Great website for the organization, funding, and management of a school garden. Site does not necessarily support organic gardening and is sponsored by Miracle Grow the largest distributor of Monsanto's product Round-up weed killer.